seems to be a bit high, so simply said as I said in my opening, that this proposal would give some recognition to great Nebraska political figures. Some figures that naturally come to mind are gentlemen like William Jennings Bryan, George Norris, George Gerdes, Terry Carpenter and the list can go on and on and on. So I would move then for the adoption of this resolution. Thank you.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell, I erred in the fact that there were two other lights on so we will give you another opportunity to close. I recognize first of all, Senator Maresh who wishes to speak to the resolution and then Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. Speaker, a question of Senator Newell. Senator Newell, in no manner does the resolution point out if we are recognizing present political figures or those in the past. Are they living or dead?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Is this a question to Senator Newell?

SENATOR MARESH: Yes.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell, do you yield?

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, I do.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, go ahead.

SENATOR NEWELL: Senator Maresh, it is not specified that it should be deceased political figures although my preference will be for those deceased. I think it is very difficult dealing, and I think we have to, early on lay out the ground rules that it cannot be anybody presently serving in the body. That would really provide tremendous problems we don't really need but my preference will be for deceased figures. I did not put that in the resolution in part because I thought that would just complicate the process.

SENATOR MARESH: Won't that make it very controversial when it gets to the floor if a living person should be nominated?

SENATOR NEWELL: I hope not. The situation is that the Historical Society will make recommendations and the sub-committee of the Exec Board will then bring those before the body. I think it is going to be controversial if anybody should be forgotten that somebody else wants
